

CRIME AND CALAMITY.

A Day's Record of Wickedness and Misfortune.

A Wealthy desperado meets a tragic end—The Virginia Robbers caught and lynched—The other Domestic Tragedy.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 2.—The body of Jacob Reed, the desperado fisherman who, in attempting to drown Officer Grebeck and evade arrest, was himself drowned at Columbia, has been recovered near Washington, three miles below the scene of its tragic death. The $100,000 money on his person at the time of the drowning was not only all that was left of a legacy of $25,000 received a few months ago, but was all that he realized from a sale of his interest in a farm worth $50,000 with a widow's dower in it, and all of which would have been his had the widow died first, an event likely to occur as she was an old lady.

ROBBERS LYNCHED
CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 2.—Scott Hill, Brownlow Hill and Charles Sprick, the robbers who are charged with killing Albert Woods and fatally wounding A. J. Woods, on Monday, near St. Albans, have been captured. In the mountains and taken to St. Albans. About 300 citizens had been in pursuit of the murderers. The hotel at St. Albans, where the prisoners were confined, was surrounded by men, women and children clamoring for the blood of the prisoners. The mob rapidly increased in numbers, the entire population of the surrounding country hastening to the scene. At length a determined rush was made and the terrified doors of the hotel forced in. Taking the Hill brothers from the others, the mob dragged them out to an elm tree, standing on the outskirts of the town. There the brothers confessed and were hanged. During the excitement attending the lynching the officers succeeded in securing with Sprick a $100,000 money bag. They reached this city in safety, and he is now locked up. He also admits he is guilty of the crime for which he was arrested.

MURDERED BY JEALOUSY
NEVADA, La., May 2.—Edward Thompson, a Norwegian farmer, aged twenty-two, near Rolland, returning home last evening entered his house, flourishing a revolver and threatening to kill his young wife. A sister of his wife intervened and disarmed him. The wife then ran out of the house and was followed by her husband, who secured an axe and struck her on the head. He repeated the blow, inflicting a mortal wound, and then ran away leaving her for dead. Assistance was called and the victim was found in a comatose state. The physicians report small chances for recovery. Thompson was subsequently found in a well where he had plunged head foremost, drowning himself. The tragedy was caused by jealousy.
